30 SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE AWARDED FOR NEXT SEMESTER

Examinations For High School Students Set For April 27th

Brother James, dean of the college, announced this week that as a part of the campaign to increase student enrollment at Saint Mary's, thirty scholarships will be given to high school students making the highest marks in a competitive examination to be held on Saturday morning, April 27.

The examinations will be held in three different sections of the state, San Francisco, Sacramento and here, on the campus, a set of ten awards being given in each district. The examination in the San Francisco district will be held at Mission High School, in Sacramento at Sutter Junior High School.

Thirty Awards

The awards to be given in each of the districts are:

One President's scholarship of 4 years, value $600.00 each.

One three-year scholarship, value $450.00 each.

One two-year scholarship, value 300.00 each.

Seven one-year scholarships, value $150.00 each.

The examination, which will be of a general nature, is open to all public and private high school male students who are in the graduating class of 1935.

The conditions attached to entrance in this examination are: Each candidate must have completed by July 1, 1935, 3 years of English, 2 years of foreign language, U. S. History and Civics, Elementary Algebra and Plane Geometry, and one year of either Chemistry or Physics.

Mr. Hagerty Heads Board

The examination papers will be graded by an impartial board of judges, which will select the ten highest. The President's Scholarship will be awarded to the contestant meriting the highest grade. The decision of the Scholarship Committee, headed by Professor James L. Hagerty, chairman, will be final.

According to Brother James, the scholarships are non-transferable.

Saint Mary's Club To Add Contra Costa Unit

Again the Saint Mary's Club, a group of men who have never attended the college, plans for further expansion of their organization. The expansion this time is to be the addition of a Contra Costa County unit of the club.

The meeting to establish this new unit is to be held next Wednesday, April 10th, at 8 p. m., in the Knights of Columbus Building, 150 Golden Gate Avenue. Besides organizing a new unit, other club business will be discussed, and all club members who can do so are urged to be present.

Spring Meeting

The club has also received the approval of Brother Albert to hold a spring meeting on April 28th on the campus, similar to the one held here last semester.

Final arrangements for this gathering have not yet been made, but the club members will be informed of the plans when they are made.

Glee Club To Offer Initial Amateur Act

April twenty-fifth is the date set by Brother Alfred early this week for the first amateur night to be held on the campus. This affair, which is to take place in the De La Salle lounge, is sponsored by the local Glee Club.

Joe Alioto, Richard Vail and William Bourne compose the committee which has been placed in charge of this feature affair.

President Reorganizes Athletic Control Board

SPOKANE, Wash., April 4 (Special to The Collegian.)—Announcement by Brother Albert, president of the college, today showed a complete reorganization of the Board of Athletic Control. The board, which has complete control of the administration of athletic affairs of the college, is now composed of five members.

The membership consists of the following men: Mr. Andrew Burke '04, San Francisco attorney, and first editor of The Collegian; Mr. Andrew Johnson '30, San Francisco insurance man; Mr. James M. Smith '10, donor of the Smith track and punting trophy and San Francisco contractor; Mr. John J. Flynn, Oakland banker and member of the board of trustees; and Brother Virgil of the English department of the college and also a member of the Board of Trustees.

Locals Defeat Dons On Youth Question

Saint Mary's defeated U.S.F. in the lounge on the proposition "Resolved: That the affairs of the world should be entrusted to youth," youth considered to be those under thirty last night.

University of San Francisco was represented by Frank O'Connor and Leo Murphy, who upheld the affirmative.

Stress was laid on the fact that youth possesses the animation and vitality that is so needed today. Moreover, the solution of present difficulties was said to be found in youth.

Joe Alioto and Rod Stetson, Saint Mary's debaters, in defending the negative, declared that youth though possessing hope and daring lacks the understanding and truth so necessary for success. It was suggested that both age and youth be allowed a hand in the affairs of the world.

Frosh Debate

Earlier in the evening Saint Mary's freshmen debated the first year men from the University of San Francisco on the question "Resolved: That there should be a third major political party in the United States."

Affirmative arguments were presented by Victor Wilkiemeyer and Lawrence Webber of Saint Mary's. Negative views were given by Jerome Cahill and John Downes of the University of San Francisco.

Noted Dental Head Addresses Seniors

Speaking on "The Possibilities of Dentistry," Dr. Frederick T. West, San Francisco orthodontist, today delivered this week's transition talk to the senior class.

Dr. West is an alumnus of Saint Mary's College, graduating with the class of 1914, is past president of the Alumni Association and now is serving on the board of directors of that body.

At present he is vice-president and a faculty member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons in San Francisco and secretary of the California State Dental Society as well as a Fellow of the American Dental Society, which is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed on a man of his profession.

President Returns To Campus After Meeting

Brother Albert, president of the college, will return to the campus this evening after a week's trip to Spokane, where he attended a meeting of the Northwestern Association of Secondary and Higher Schools.

Tomorrow he will welcome the delegates to the convention of the American College Publicity Association who will hold their annual meeting on the campus.

Brother Ralph, former treasurer of the college, also attended the Spokane meeting as a member of the accrediting committee of the educational association, on which he has served for several years.

CUNNINGHAM MADE ALUMNI PRESIDENT

Grads Return to Best Homecoming of Recent Years

Another successful Homecoming Day is just a memory to those alumni who again visited their campus and who participated in the many activities outlined for the day.

The day began for the alumni with Mass celebrated in the chapel by Father McAuliffe who gave a sermon on the value of keeping Lenten resolutions. The Mass was followed immediately by a breakfast in the student dining room.

Brother Albert Speaks

Arthur D'Arco, graduate of last year's class, was the chairman for the "after-breakfast" speeches. He introduced Brother Albert who outlined the need for more support from the alumni for the college.

Noel Sherry then extended the student body welcome to the alumni. Next Father McAuliffe spoke on the need of educating youth in Catholic Action and said that schools like Saint Mary's are the best for doing this kind of work.

After breakfast many of the alumni attended the educational conference which was held in the lounge. William Lowery '11, presided over this conference which consisted of a memorial to Brother Agnon and a discussion of the topic: "Economic and Social Problems." Besides many prominent alumni speakers, Brother Leo also spoke at this time.

Saint Mary's Band

Warrant Officer Arthur Jason, band director of the 30th Infantry Band, conducted the college band in a concert that was held in Madigan Gymnasium at one o'clock.

College To Act As Host To High School Seniors

The college will be host to the students of the Catholic High Schools of the Bay region on President's Day, May 2, when the seniors will make an all day visit to the campus.

The tentative program for the day, as announced by Brother Patrick, in charge of the arrangements for the day, will include welcoming talks by Brother Albert, Brother Leo and "Slip" Madigan, followed by a tour of the campus and lunch at twelve o'clock. In the afternoon there will be swimming and a scrimmage of the varsity football squad.

Students from Saint Mary's High in Berkeley, Saint Elizabeth's High in Oakland, Sacred Heart High in San Francisco, and Christian Brother's High in Sacramento are to be among those making the visit.

Local Art Men Inspect Ancient Greek Coins

Illustrating a brief talk on Greek and Roman coins, with about five hundred specimens, Mr. Mark Aikin, local English instructor, brought before the eyes of the Art Club what Brother Cornelius termed "the whole panorama of the development and decline of classic art" at a meeting last Monday noon.

The occasion was the regular monthly get-together of the group, which is under the leadership of Edward Ryan, president. At each meeting a notable outside or campus speaker is secured for an illustrated lecture.

Idaho University Men Argue Here Wednesday

The Pi Kappa Delta arms and munitions question is up for more rehashing next Wednesday evening when the southern branch of the University of Idaho send their forensic squad here to defend the prevention of the shipment of arms and munitions.

John Rossi and Richard Vail are the orators chosen by Mr. McAndrews to meet the traveling team.

Brother Albert Thanks Grads For Loyalty

SPOKANE, Wash., April 4 (Special to The Collegian).—Brother Albert today issued the following statement to the Alumni:

My Fellow Alumni:

"I wish to congratulate you on your splendid showing at the Homecoming last Sunday. It was a special pleasure to make the acquaintance of so many Saint Mary's men.

"As was stated last Sunday, Saint Mary's needs loyal supporters, and after the showing Homecoming Day, I have no doubt of the loyalty of the Alumni Association.

"Especially do I wish to say a word of praise concerning the educational program of the day. That clearly indicates that Saint Mary's men continue educational interests after they graduate."

BROTHER ALBERT,
President.

Ex Council Meeting Quiet This Week

Wednesday's meeting of the Executive Council was marked by one of the few instances in which lower classmen, and especially freshman have sounded off. This time, one of the "silent ones" suggested that the "Week-In-Brief" be resumed in The Collegian.

Philip Quittman, head journalistic light, said that when campus activities warranted it, the feature would be restored.

Martin Hill urged better seating arrangements at the commencement exercises, but the council referred the matter to the senior men's group, with the reply, "out of our scope."

Val Detling objected to the wording in last week's Collegian, regarding the tea dance. The matter was immediately settled by Quittman when he clarified the point.

Mathematics Teacher Returns To Campus

After having been confined to Saint Mary's Hospital in San Francisco since the first of January, Brother Nicholas, college postmaster and instructor in Religion and Mathematics, returned to the campus early this week.

Brother Nicholas expressed himself in splendid condition and anxious to resume his classes. However, he will not take these over until next August because it is so late in the semester.

Room Ransacked

TO STEAL GAEL COPY

In an attempt to confiscate possible incriminating 'copy" and photographs, an unknown person thoroughly. ransacked the GAEL editor's room during its owner's absence over the week end.

Returning to his office on the third floor of the center dorm, Phil Brady discovered that the door had been forced and that the intruder had turned over the beds, typewriter stand and the GAEL files in a frantic search for the material in this year's book. Nothing was taken, however, as all copy and photos had been sent to the printer and engraver.

This unprecedented action substantiated the fact that the 1935 GAEL would be "new and different."

"There is nothing scandalous to be printed in the GAEL," said Editor Brady in commenting on the startling action by the "unknown," but for a fact the book is in a way going to be radically different. Many of our candid camera photos will cause quite a furor in campus circles, and perhaps some individual who knows definitely that he has been caught off guard by our demon picture-snatcher, Maurice Veiera, is attempting some snatching of his own.

The GAEL will be on the campus Monday, May 6th.

Publicity Aide

To Mr. Robert J. McAndrews, recently appointed assistant to the dean, was given the task of securing speakers for the publicity convention tomorrow.

Santa Clara Guests At Good Will Dinner

Brother Albert, president of the college, will be host at the second "Good Will" dinner of Santa Clara University and Saint Mary's College on the campus Monday evening, it was announced this week.

The series of dinners was instituted at Santa Clara last fall, when the authorities there gave a dinner to Saint Mary's representatives.

Those who will attend the dinner include: The Very Rev. James J. Lyons, S.J., president of Santa Clara; Rev. Joseph R. Crowley, S.J., Mr. Harry McKenzie, Mr. Charles Graham, Mr. James Bacigalupi, Mr. Victor Chargin, Rev. Thomas O'Connell, F. F. Dunne, Maurice "Clipper" Smith, Lawrence Shaw, Albert Ruffo, and Justin Fitzgerald.

Others who will be present include: Brother Jasper, former president of the college, and Brother Provincial, Andrew Burke, Andrew Johnson, James M. Smith, Edward "Slip" Madigan, Louis LeFevre, Norman Strader, Vincent McNally, Earl Sheely, and John Illia.

Vincent Club Elects Next Year's Leader

Meeting for the purpose of electing new officers for the coming year, the Saint Vincent De Paul Society of the campus chose William Tipton as their president to replace Carl Roehl.

The other offices of vice-president, secretary and treasurer will be chosen during the week by the new president and last year's board.

At the meeting a resolution was also passed to make another round of the rooms to collect all the old clothes, shoes and bottles that might be there.

Radio Lecture To Be On French Statesman

In another in the series of weekly radio lectures sponsored by the College every Friday evening at 7:45 over station KTAB, Mr. Robert J. McAndrews, local debate coach, will speak tonight on the contemporary French poet, "Paul Claudel."

Paul Claudel is not only an eminent poet, but also a leading statesman. He has served as ambassador to the United States from France for over six years, 1927 to 1933.

Los Hidalgos Plan For Banquet After Easter

"Los Hidalgos," Spanish Club, has formulated plans for the remaining of the semester, according to William Simon. The organization decided to hold its second banquet of the school year in San Francisco immediately after the Easter vacation.

A lecture on some interesting topic will be sponsored by the club in the near future. The speaker to be secured for the evening will come from the University of California.

PUBLICITY GROUP MEETS TOMORROW HERE ON CAMPUS

Representatives of Western Colleges in Annual Convention

Tomorrow morning, representatives of colleges and universities in Western United States and Hawaii will gather on the campus for the annual convention of the eighth district of the American College Publicity Association.

Problems of the depression in regard to college publicity and radio will be discussed at the morning and afternoon sessions of the group.

Prominent Speakers

Among the speakers of the day will appear Lloyd Yoder, director of public relations of the National Broadcasting Company in San Francisco; Frank Wright of station KTAB; Phil Sinnot of the NEA service, and Harold Ellis, director of public relations of the University of California.

The day will open with an address by the director of the eighth district, Brother Virgil, and a welcome of the delegates by Brother Albert, president of the college.

Following this, the delegates will proceed with their morning session, which calls for a number of speakers on subjects pertaining to college publicity.

Luncheon will be served in the students' dining hall at twelve-thirty, at which time J. E. Doyle of the Oakland Post-Enquirer will speak.

Campus Tour

After lunch, the delegates will have an opportunity to make a tour of the campus before the afternoon session which will begin at 1:45. The afternoon period will be devoted to a continuation of the morning discussion.

Sections will be provided for discussion for sports and societies. Arrangements have been made for a special train, leaving San Francisco at 7:40, leaving Oakland at 8:00, and reaching Saint Mary's at 8:30, in time for registration.

Brother Virgil, moderator of publications, has been in charge of the arrangements for the convention, and has been aided by Mr. Robert McAndrews, assistant dean of the college.

This is the first time that the convention has assembled on the campus, having previously convened at the University of California and the University of California at Los Angeles.

Bids To Senior Ball To Go On Sale This Noon

Interest heightened in the Senior Ball yesterday with the word that there is a good possibility that two of Tom Coakley's star performers, Al Morris and Carl Ravazza, both one-time Saint Mary's men, would entertain the dancers in the Colonial Room of the St. Francis Hotel the night of May 3rd.

The ball committee reports that it is very likely that these two will be allowed to sing with Ran Wilde's orchestra for a short period during the evening. This brings the number of entertainments up to four. Joe Luke and Miss Harriet Kaye of Wilde's musicians will be the other attractions.

Bids go on sale today and are obtainable from committee members. Off-campus men and alumni were urged by Henry Floyd, class president, to purchase their bids in advance as the number is limited to 125. The committee consists of Martin Hill, Havelock Hunter, Jack Purcell, George Jay, William Siefker, Phipps Rasmussen, Robert McKean, Walter Violich, John Mallarino, Thomas Twomey, John Rainsford, Joseph Curtin, James Flynn, James O'Donnell and Elwood Lang.

Seniors wanting graduation announcements must order them before three o'clock Monday afternoon from Santo Garbo in Room 323 Center Hall. No orders will be accepted after Monday at three.

Broncos Take Easy 8-4 Decision Over Phoenix

MISSION FIELD, April 4.—Blasting their way through weak Phoenix stolen-base defenses and scoring four runs in the first inning, the Santa Clara Bronco baseball team today won an 8-4 victory over the Saint Mary's stickers in the second battle of their three-game series.

Beside their big first inning, the Prune Valley boys also counted valuable markers in the fourth and fifth innings, scoring three in the latter, to cinch the ball game.

Four stolen bases, two Phoenix errors and two scratch hits gave the Broncos their initial inning quartet of runs. Two singles in the fourth counted another one to Santa Clara's credit and then two more singles, an error and a walk gave the hosts their last three runs.

Bunt Counts One

Cleone's bunt with the bases loaded and two down in the second inning gave the Moragans one run. In the eighth canto, singles by Hanna and Flanagan and Owens' Texas leaguer, counted two markers, and Ed Stetson drove Owens in with the final Phoenix run in the same frame.

Stetson had relieved Cleone in the sixth inning and pitched air-tight ball down the stretch, allowing but one hit. But the damage had already been done and Stetson's fine work went for naught.

Local Frosh Lose To Bearlets, McClymonds

Defeats at the hands of the California Freshmen and the McClymonds High nine in one day broke up the Saint Mary's Freshman nine's prolonged winning streak last Friday on the home grounds.

In the first game of the double-header, the Bear first year men defeated the Gael yearlings by virtue of six runs scored in the ninth frame.

Collect Only Six Bingles

The Gaelets fell the victim of superior pitching in their second tilt. The West Oakland squad's ace pitcher, Hank Raimondi, allowed only six scattered safeties. Bill Barsotti chucked for the Saint Mary's freshmen and he was kicked for twelve hits.

PHOENIX IN SANTA CLARA DUEL TUESDAY

With the possibility of winning its first intercollegiate diamond title in years, and with the almost certain assurance of finishing "2" or "3" in the league's standing, Saint Mary's Phoenix contests Santa Clara's engimatic nine Tuesday afternoon on the Moraga field.

Although the Broncos are definitely out of the championship division, Tuesday's game, the third in the series between the two rivals this season, has a concrete importance. A win for the locals will place them in an advantageous position on their important southern trip next week, while a defeat will just about close all avenues leading to the title.

With Sheely almost certain to pit one of his two left handers against the array of southpaw batters on the UCLA nine tomorrow here, either Steely or Stetson should oppose Helmstein in Tuesday's match.

Block Initiation Delayed For Ball Tour

Circus days will soon be here, for immediately after Easter vacation the Block SM Society will stage its annual initiation.

Something new will be presented this year in the dining hall before the students in the nature of "meller-drammers." Some thrillers are promised, and it is rumored that the neophytes boast real talent—perhaps a Barrymore in the offing.

Bud Hanna, Herb Schreiber, Bill Scott and "Kelly" Kellogg form the committee in charge of the initiation. The boys providing the fun will be: Flynn, Harris, Ewart, Owens, Magrini, Cassidy, Kordick, Conlee, Pendleton, O'Connor, Keran, Strub, Austin, Fiese, Nelson, Giannoni and Olson.

Golfers Whipped By Broncos; Face Cards

Santa Clara Mashie Men Make Clean Sweep

La Rinconada Country Club at Los Gatos last Saturday proved the main downfall for the Saint Mary's golfers, where they were drubbed, 9-0, by Santa Clara. A furious wind and hard greens that wouldn't hold the shortest pitch-shot baffled the Gaels, throwing them far off their games and making for erratic golf.

Not one Saint Mary's pair was able to capture even a half point from the Broncos, the first time this season that the Moragans have been shut out. Paul Fretz and "Hook" Eckman, playing first team for Santa Clara, turned in fine games, and were too much for the Gael's best.

Lose Final Chance

Sill and Curry, third team, came closest to winning when they were all even to start the eighteenth hole, but slipped and lost their three points, along with the rest of the team.

Confident that they can do much better, the Moragans will be out for revenge when Santa Clara comes to Orinda later in the season for a return meeting. The Gaels will then be on their home course.

For the second successive Saturday, the Saint Mary's golfers will journey to the peninsula, this time taking on the Stanford Junior Varsity at the University course.

Good Chance To Win

An Indian line-up is not available, due to the fact that Stanford is now enjoying vacation, and who will participate cannot be definitely said.

Scrimmage 'n Cups 'n Everything

Fiese, Ferry Trophy Victors; 1st-2nd Teams in 12-0 Win

Almost an entire new team of regulars kicked and passed its way to a 12-0 victory Sunday before a thousand or more graduates of Saint Mary's, who made their annual Homecoming Day trip to the campus. The squad was so divided that the first and second teams played respective quarters against the third and fourth teams.

Herm Meister's field goal was the only score that the first string made all afternoon. The other "regulars" score came as a result of a pass from Ned O'Loughlin to Floyd Maxham, a second string combination. Meister kicked the try for point. In the fourth quarter, Rolly Willett was nailed behind his own goal line for the day's final two points.

Line-up Surprises

The most pleasant surprise of the new line-up was the changing of "Kelly" Kellogg from fullback to right-half and Mal Fiese from quarter to fullback. Lou Ferry, a sophomore from Richmond, took over the job of quarterback in this change.

Other regular starters were: Bill McKinney and Jim Preston, ends; Herm Meister and Jerry Dennerlein, tackles; Marty Kordick and Gerry Conlee, guards, and Bud Jirsa, center; Ned O'Loughlin completed the line-up, taking over the left-half position.

Mal Fiese duplicated his performance of two years ago in winning the James M. Smith punting trophy. He averaged 44 yards in three tries for distance and also showed great accuracy by hitting within a five-yard circle from a distance of 40 yards in an accuracy test.

Lou Ferry, promising quarterback from Richmond, won the Sheriff William J. Fitzgerald passing trophy with a 61 yard average for distance and two bull's eyes at 40 yards for accuracy.

Rolly Willett and Ned O'Loughlin finished second and third respectively in the punting competition, while Chinto Conrotto was runner-up and Gerry Dennerlein third in the passing.

Frosh Baseballers Play Saint Peter's

The Saint Mary's freshmen nine meets a formadible opponent tomorrow morning in Coach Bill Moran's Saint Peter's prepsters of San Francisco. Already boasting wins over six San Francisco high school nines, the Christian Brother's team, with Bud Merrill on the hill-top, will offer Earl Sheely's outfit plenty of opposition. Young Merrill is classed as one of the leading semi-pro chuckers in the Bay city. This is the only game scheduled for this week.

Locals Make Strong Bid to Better Position; Flanagan Hurls

Saint Mary's 1935 varsity nine, who have suddenly acquired the pleasant habit of winning games, takes their final bow before a local assemblage tomorrow, before departing one week hence for the Southland. The league-leading Bruins of U.C.L.A. are the visitors and a stiff battle is in the offing.

The Gaels, at present writing, are firmly entrenched in third position and have a chance of gaining a full game on the leaders, should they come out on top in tomorrow's tussle.

Encouraged by the fine showing of his new infield combination, Coach Sheely will open with the same lineup that toppled the Trojan varsity last Monday. This will find scrappy little "Jerry" Marinovich on third; Toby Irwin on the short patch; the veteran Bud Hanna on second, and either "Lefty" Flanagan or Al Nelson on the initial sack.

Bruins Don't Like Portsiders

Thus far in league competition, the Bruins has evidenced a glaring weakness against southpaw pitching. Capitalizing on this point, Coach Sheely will probably send his ace left-hander, Jack Flanagan, to the mound. This move will place the sophomore Nelson on first base, with Ancil Magrini being shifted to right field to fill that gap.

Irwin, up from last year's freshmen club, made his second appearance of the season Monday, when he was called upon to relieve the injured Ray Desimone, also a sophomore. The tall blonde came through in great style,

MUST MAKE GAEL PAYMENTS PRIOR TO NEXT FRIDAY

Brady Urges Cooperation Of Student Body

With April 15th set as the date on which the GAEL goes to the press, students are reminded that they must have their down payments made by the end of next week or else it will be impossible for them to obtain their annual, according to Philip Brady, editor.

So far this year the payments have compared favorably with those of previous years, but since the Junior Class has been budgeted closely by the faculty, it will not be possible for them to print extra copies and therefore it is imperative that payments be made soon.

When asked by The Collegian as to the cover design on the annual, Philip Brady would not commit himself but gave assurance that it would be "different."

According to Phil Quittman, the business end of the GAEL is beginning to look brighter, but he expressed the need of further sales on the campus. Only 175 books have been sold so far, requiring the sale of approximately one hundred books more.

Five hundred and twenty-five dollars worth of advertisements have already been sold and there remains to be sold about one hundred and seventy-five dollars worth more.

"All the GAEL staff needs now to make the annual a success is a little more cooperation from the students who have delayed making their down payments. If all those students who have promised will make their payments this week, the success of the GAEL is assured," according to editor Phil Brady.

Freshmen Debaters To Travel To Santa Rosa

Freshman debaters go travelling next week when they meet the Santa Rosa High School on Tuesday, April 9th, in Santa Rosa. Debaters to engage the high school team are William Grosse, recently returned from the debate tour, and Edward LaBerge.

The Santa Rosa orators will contend that: "The Townsend Plan is desirable and should be adopted." A system of debate that is seldom used in California will be used Tuesday evening when the Oregon cross-examination system will be employed.

Cal Debate

Another freshman team will debate off the campus next week when Lawrence Mana and Walton Goldman meet the California Freshman squad in Wheeler hall on Thursday.

Six Students Compete For Doctrine Medal

With an array of questions that would stump anybody, the examination for the Christian Doctrine Medal was given last Thursday under the supervision of Brother Alfred.

This medal is awarded annually by the Archbishop of San Francisco to the winner of the examination. Juniors and Sophomores meriting a grade of A in Religion are eligible to compete.

The medal is of gold and was founded in memory of the Most Reverend Patrick William Riordan, former Archbishop of San Francisco. Those competing were Carl Schuck, Frank Salmon, Bill Simon, Frank Martin, George Murphy and Joe Franey. Results of the examination will be announced later.

K. C. Group to Hear Brother Leo On Air

Speaking from the Colonial Room at the Saint Francis Hotel in San Francisco, where he will be addressing the Knights of Columbus of the Bay area at their annual Communion Breakfast, Sunday, April 7, Brother Leo will again be heard on the air.

This talk, which will be presented at 9:30 a. m., is to be broadcast over the NBC network.

This evening at 8:00, Brother Leo will deliver the ninth lecture in the Hamlet course at the University of California Extension in San Francisco. Saturday at 10:30 a. m. he will present the final lecture of the series on Donte's Inferno, at the San Francisco College for Women. At 1:00 p. m. he is to speak before the California Classical Association Berkeley Women's Club, Berkeley, at their Commemorative Luncheon. The topic discussed before this group is "Horace and the Act of Delight."

Sunday, April 7, Brother Leo will be one of the principal speakers at the Knights of Columbus annual Communion Breakfast which will be held at the Saint Francis Hotel in San Francisco.

Utah State Met On Pi Kappa Delta Topic

Discussing once more the much over-worked question, "Resolved: That the nations of the world should agree to stop the international shipment of arms and munitions," the Saint Mary's debate varsity met a travelling team from the Utah State Agricultural College last Wednesday evening in the lounge.

Representing the visitors were William Reeder, a senior student who debated for his college last year in a tour through Colorado and Wyoming, and Kenneth Spenser, a junior, who toured southern California last year in another tour. Carl Schuck and Thomas Paddock, two of the three sophomores who recently handed the Santa Clara Senate Society a defeat, argued for Saint Mary's.

New System

The main feature of last Wednesday's forensic contest was the introduction of a new system, which consisted of cross-questioning after each constructive speech on the actual material presented. This system was picked up by the varsity debaters on their recent tour of the northwest, basing the idea on the method used by the University of Washington orators.

Brother Claudius Explains History of Rare Douay Bible

Announcement last week in The Collegian that Brother Claudius, Bible expert and religion instructor, had received a copy of the first printed edition of the Rheims Douay version of the New Testament has caused such discussion that the campus lecturer has consented to give further comments on it.

"The New Testament which I hold," said Brother Claudius, "had to be published outside of England because of opposition that existed at that time against the Catholic Bible. It was later smuggled into England, and government spies brought many to the rack who were suspected of circulating this new translation."

Best Scholar of Day

Doctor Gregory Martin, the man who translated this book from the Latin Vulgate was, in the words of Brother Claudius, "the best Latin, Greek, and Hebrew scholar that made a sixteenth century English version," and beyond question was the best qualified man to undertake the translation of the Rheims Douay.

Many non-Catholics have brought the charge that Martin showed a preference for ponderous Latin words in this version, and to this the religion instructor replies that "Martin was scrupulously faithful to render the exact sense of the original, and since his time many of the so-called 'ponderous terms' have been accepted by the language and are in common usage."

Influences King James

The influence of the Rheims Douay on subsequent Protestant versions is marked and unquestionable, said the Brother. In this regard, he quoted the words of the famous Protestant Bible scholar, Doctor Carleton, who asserted that the King James' version was influenced by the Rheims in three thousand places.

All the features of Gregory Martin's translation are well shown in the book possessed by Brother Claudius. Among these are the grouping and paragraphing of chapters instead of chopping them up into verses, (inaugurated in this version), the copious annotations, the side-by-side comparisons with other New Testaments, and the table of difficult words.

Brother Claudius will keep the book in his private library, and students who are desirous of viewing it shall get in touch with the religion instructor, who has announced himself as "happy to show all the features of this rare acquisition to the students."

HOMECOMING

college put on exhibition boxing and wrestling matches, which were chairmaned by Thomas Cara '33.

Beginning approximately at two o'clock were the punting and passing contests on Agnon Field. Malcom Fiese again won the James Smith punting contest, while Louis Ferry, a sophomore, won the Fitzgerald passing trophy.

These contests were followed by a football game between varsity teams of the "blues" and the "whites." Robert McAndrews announced the game from the side lines.

Benediction

At four o'clock Benediction was held in the chapel by Father Bowling, chaplain of the students.

Then after Benediction the alumni convened in the dining room and held their annual dinner. The chairman for the banquet was Joseph Stretch who introduced the speakers. One of the featured speakers was Brother Leo who spoke on the value of a Saint Mary's education.

After the dinner the alumni voted on their president for the coming year and Leo Cunningham was chosen to succeed Dr. West.

ALUMNI MEETING

A meeting of the Alumni Association on the matter of the New Student Campaign will be held at the William Taylor Hotel in San Francisco on Tuesday, April 16, at 7:45 The meeting was originally scheduled for April 9th. All Alumni are urged to attend.

GAEL GOSSIP

By Bill Smith

COACH Clint Evans, head horsehide man at the University of California, in an interview with Roy Cummings, sports writer for the San Francisco Call-Bulletin, was asked who was the best professional prospect in the college league this year.

The Bear Maestro named, amongst others, Stan Steely and Jack Flanagan of Saint Mary's. And we heartily agree with Clint. But who wouldn't?

These two sophomore campaigners have been the backbone of the best Phoenix team in years, a team that will be in there all the way this season, battling right up the home stretch for the coveted pennant.

Steely, when right, is just as good a man as Evans' first choice league hurler, "Sloppy Joe" Gallison. Gallison has bested Steely this season, but it would have been a pleasure to watch them hook up again last Monday, when the local hurler pitched such fine ball against the sons of Troy.

Flanagan, best on the mound, is an all-around asset to any club. When he's not chucking, "Lefty" is playing first base or right field or center or 'most any other spot. It wouldn't surprise many to see him don a backstop's garb one of these days just for variety.

Both men are fine hitters, and a credit to the ball club.

Yes, we heartily agree with Sir Clint. They're the 'tops."

Our prediction (so early, too) is that next year they'll be the spearhead of an attack that will carry the Phoenix to its first baseball title in recent years.

MYSTERY OF THE WEEK: For whom did Bill Cullenward root in the Saint Mary's-U.S.C. fracas last Tuesday? And, by way of unintentional irony, he was assigned the job of covering the game, too!

DESPITE any rumors which you may have heard to the contrary, the former "shots," Yezerski, Elduyan and Mattos, will absolutely not return to school here again. It is, practically speaking, impossible for them to make up the credits that they are behind. And latest reports have it that they're going to make them up in summer school. What a laugh, what a laugh!

S-PAD SCRIBBILINGS: Didja ever notice the resemblances between Sargota and Lang? Don Miller and Maxham? And sometimes the walks on Hilkin and Minogue? . . . it'll be too bad for baseball and basketball if one of the regulars makes up his mind not to come back next semester . . . credit "Lefty" Flanagan with the best bit of headwork of the season agin the Trojans . . . when he faked for a runner at first on a wild throw . . . then timed his fake perfectly to cut off a run at home . . . Toby Irwin's batting average went up this week from .000 to .600 not counting the Bronco game for next week . . . . . we'll save the rest of 'em for next week . . .

Sheely Men Down U.S.C. in 8-3 Victory

Saint Mary's varsity baseball nine played an April Fool joke on El Trojan's horsehiders last Monday afternoon when the Gaels pounded three Southern California pitchers for eleven hits and eight runs to win a decisive 8-4 victory.

Steely Is Stingy

Stan Steely turned in an inspired performance on the mound, holding the U.S.C. sluggers to five scattered hits and four runs and also driving out two bingles at the platter.

Toby Irwin seemingly carved out a first string spot for himself at short with a stellar day at the plate, fathoming the offerings of the three pitchers for three base hits in four attempts.

Varsity In Narrow Victory Over Athens

Showing more strength, both in fielding and at bat than they have so far this season, the Saint Mary's baseball nine last Saturday downed the strong Athens Club, 9 to 8 on Agnon Field. Both teams played heads-up ball throughout the entire game.

Sportsmanship Cup To Be Awarded Soon

Announcement came from the Athletic Office last night that the winner of the new sportsmanship award trophy would be made known shortly. The coaches have not yet had time to cast their votes.

SHEELY MEN CLASH WITH UCLAN NINE ON AGNON DIAMOND

Lost Initial Start

The Southern nine, coached by Jack Fournier, opened their season inauspiciously, dropping their first game. Since then they have progressed steadily and are now picked as "the club to beat." The Westwooders' record of but one defeat speaks for itself. In their losing game with California the Bruins' hitters were limited to three safe blows, but they came back the following day to even the series count with the Bears.

Jack Fournier will start his star chucker, Eli Baca, against the Phoenix tomorrow, with the dependable "Tom" Toomey behind the plate. Baca is regarded as one of the league's standouts in the south and should give the Gael nine a merry afternoon.

Racqueteers Play Santa Clara, Dons

After almost a fortnight of inactivity, due mainly to cancellation of matches with California and the Oakland Tennis Club, and partly to a schedule that even now, with the tennis season more than half over, is still only in the tentative stages, the Gael netsters meet their traditional rivals from down the Peninsula—the Santa Clara Broncos—tomorrow on the campus courts.

Monday afternoon the Gaels meet a rival second only to the Broncos, the racquet-wielders from U.S.F. This match will also take place on the local courts.

Bucky Harris Victim Of Bad Eye Injury

"'Smatter Bucky, forget to duck?" "What's the other guy look like?"

Such are a few of the broad sallies that Captain Bucky Harris, Phoenix third baseman, has had to contend with the past week, while sporting a colossal lamp, as a result of stopping a fast one with his left eye last Saturday while at bat against Carasso, Athens Club chucker.

There's something about a Chesterfield ——

There's one thing I especially like about Chesterfields — entirely aside from the fact that it's a milder cigarette — and I've heard a number of people say the same thing ... While I'm smoking Chesterfield I never get little crumbs of tobacco in my mouth — the tobacco doesn't spill out and that adds a lot to my pleasure of smoking them ... I notice more and more of my friends smoke Chesterfields.

COTTLE CONTEST SET FOR MAY 2

Preliminaries Slated For April 25; Judges Pending

Arrangements are completed for the annual Cottle oratorical contest, according to Mr. Edward J. Smiddy, who is in charge of the affair.

April 25th is the date set for the preliminaries, while the finals have been arranged for May 2nd. The three judges have not as yet been chosen by the faculty, but will be announced next week.

No definite topic is specified for use in the contest, but the essay must be original and must not have been used in previous competitions.

The winner will receive a gold medal donated by the late Reverend John E. Cottle of the class of '77.

Many students have already signed up for the contest. Others desiring to participate are urged to see Mr. Smiddy at their earliest convenience.

Those who have definitely signed up are: Edward Nevin, Arthur Mott, Henry Floyd, Richard Vail, Joseph Leonard, Rodney Stetson, Stephen Sestanivoch, Carl Schuck, William Simon, Edward LaBerge, Walton Goldman, John Day, Edward Ryan, Stanley Grbovaz, Victor Wilkiemeyer and Cleveland Riley.

Econ Society Cancels Scheduled Lecture

The economics lecture, previously scheduled for Monday, April 1, has been postponed indefinitely as the featured lecturer, Mr. Rebolledo, has been stricken with influenza.

Chaplain To Speak On Passion Sunday

"Do We Realize the Crucifixion" will be the subject to be discussed by Father Bowling, student Chaplain, at the 12:15 low Mass next Sunday, April 7, at Old Saint Mary's Church, San Francisco.

In their weekly pulpit dialogues held in Old Saint Mary's Church of Oakland every Wednesday evening, Father Bowling and Father O'Connell, pastor, will discuss the Christian doctrinal topic, "Christian Marriage, the Salvation of Society."

Father Bowling will introduce the famous lecturer and radio speaker, Father James M. Gillis, C.S.P., in a public lecture at the Oakland Auditorium Theatre next Thursday evening, April 11, at 8 o'clock. Father Gillis will speak on the subject, "If I Were a Negro."

This lecture is being sponsored by the Appomattox Club. Those desiring to hear Father Gillis can obtain tickets at Sherman Clay & Co. in Oakland.

'The Traitor' Production Slated For This Term

"The Traitor," a one-act play by Percival Wilde, has been selected as the second performance to be staged by the Student Players this semester. They have already completed their rehearsals of Lady Gregory's "Rising of the Moon" and it is ready for production. The two plays will be presented to the student body immediately after Lent.

The cast of characters were selected by popular vote of the members after each member read the various parts. John O'Connor, Bill Timmings, Al Tresconi and Earl Fleming were chosen to take leading parts. The remainder of the cast will include Ed Healy, Don Carey, Leonard d'Artenay and Paul Alston.

This evening the Student Players will journey to San Francisco in a body to attend one of the concluding performances of the Abbey Players. As "The Rising of the Moon" is an Irish play, the director of the Student Players believes it will be profitable for the players to witness the outstanding group of Irish players. Although this particular play is not being presented, nevertheless the members will get a notion of the Irish spirit.

Good Will Guest

Reverend James J. Lyons, S.J., president of the University of Santa Clara, will be the guest of Brother Albert at the "Good Will" dinner on the campus Monday evening. He will be accompanied by several other representatives of the mission school.

Courses For Summer Session Announced

Bulletins for the Saint Mary's Summer School Session may now be obtained at the office of the Recorder. The session opens June 24 and will close August 2. Brother Henry is to be Dean.

Classes will be held on the campus of Saint Mary's High School in Berkeley. The college administration offices will be open during the summer and registration must be made here.

Courses will be given in Chemistry, Spanish, French, History, Philosophy and Painting. Instructors will be Brother Pius, Professor Loosley, Brother Julius, Father Ribeyron, Professor LeFevre, Father Duffy, Brother Cornelius and Father Sciocchetti.

Courses have been valued on the basis of one unit for fifteen hours of classwork. Students are limited to six units. Further information may be obtained at the office of the Recorder, Saint Mary's College.

Lucky Strike Resumes Noted Radio Series

The Lucky Strike radio programs, which have been one of the outstanding air features since the inception of broadcasting, will resume within a month, according to a statement made today. This series will mark the return of a sponsor who has given the radio audience such universally popular features as B. A. Rolfe and His Lucky Strike Orchestra, Jack Pearl as the Baron Munchausen, The Magic Carpet with Walter Winchell, The Lucky Strike Police Cases, The Herbert and Halliday Series and culminating with the first presentation of the Metropolitan Opera Series last season.

TWO WOMEN TEAMS DEBATE ON CAMPUS

Linfield College Tonight; Cal Monday

The fair sex will hold the limelight in campus debates for the coming week when women will not only be discussed rather freely but will also debate themselves.

The first of these debates is to be held tonight and the women's debate squad of Linfield college have come all the way from McMinnville, Oregon, to orgue with the local orators that women should not be forced to share one-half of the expense of a date because "women pay and pay and pay" anyway.

The women debaters who will represent the northern college are Frances Railsback and Elizabeth Grover Linfield while Joseph Cassidy, versatile varsity back, because he made such a hit with the California Women's Varsity debaters recently when he debated them on another question, has been chosen by Coach McAndrews to team up with Phil Quittman.

Women Different

However, if we are to judge by the debate to be held Monday evening, we would come to the conclusion that women debaters from the state of California are different from northern women, because the California Women's Parliament team will debate that men have contributed more to humanity than women.

In this debate Cornelio Baca and Phil Brady will perform the chivalrous act and will come to the rescue of womankind by saying that women have done more for humanity than men.

And They Still Do

ONCE AGAIN The Gael editors have issued a plea to the student body for support. To date but one-third of the students enrolled have bought a Gael, which means that over two-thirds of the campus is yet inactive.

Still there are two groups who should be vitally interested in the success of the yearbook. One of these is the senior class. It was due to constant egging from the seniors that the third year men undertook to publish a book this year; originally they didn't intend to. Therefore it is almost obligatory on every senior to convert his talk into action and get his copy of the book; because to send the juniors into the project and then refuse to support them would be a mean trick.

The other group that would find it to its special interests to support The Gael is the present sophomore class, which will edit next year's book if there is one. The sophomores can aid themselves immeasurably for the coming year by aiding the juniors now, if they will.

Beyond a doubt, more students want a Gael than the number who have subscribed indicates. The trouble seems to be that they are slow about making a down payment. Three months ago they made a promise to buy the book and they are still making that same promise. With one month left until the end of the semester the deadline for subscriptions being next week, the time is quickly approaching to change that promise into something more tangible.

Good Work

THE RECENTLY announced scholarships offered by the college to high school students have elicited much praise on and off the campus. The benefits derived from such funds are multiple and they are not confined to the recipients. Common to any action motivated by altruistic purpose is the element of retroaction and scholarships are no exception. That they will contribute towards the betterment of the college is certain.

The competitive examinations from which results the winners are chosen makes scholarships highly selective. Only students of better than average ability enter under the scholarship system and a strata of such standard of intelligence is an asset to any school. The possibility that the scholarship may give a student opportunities that he could not otherwise provide himself with is always to be considered also.

That the publicity connected with the announcement of the examinations serves as an efficient advertising medium for the college is not to be doubted. Institutions of higher learning no longer shroud themselves in a cloak of "dignified seclusion" and "academic aloofness," for, difficult as it may be for some to admit, competition has arisen.

Even a more far-reaching influence is seen in the good will and good opinion extended towards the college sure to result from the proferrment of scholarships.

"A Desirable Depression"

ECONOMISTS tell us that during the last few years, ninety-nine per cent of the enterprises have been on the downward trend, or at least that they have failed to emerge from the depths they reached in 1932. How about the other one per cent? This one per cent is the only business that is enjoying brisk activity, and by so doing, is raising the ire of some one hundred and twenty million Americans. It is none other than the booming tax collecting business!

Gasoline taxes, income taxes, sales taxes, liquor taxes, inheritance taxes, amusement taxes, corporation taxes, and a variety of small stickers, all bleed John J. Taxpayer to boom the last business he wants boomed. Since time immemorial, generations have been involuntarily "digging down and shelling out," mumbling as they do so, and resolving to put an end to the exaggerated measures offered every year.

Californians at the present time have an excellent opportunity to turn back another one of these crushing tax waves that points at economic annihilation. The wave this time is in the form of the Chatters State Income Tax Bill which is before the Assembly at Sacramento, with the backing of Governor Merriam. Here we are on the threshold of a duplicate tax scheme, wherein the State and Federal governments will both levy income taxes, besides the stabbing State two and a half per cent sales tax which keeps the California government above water, and the people below. If the State wants to levy the sales tax, all right, we can bear it, but to levy both the sales and income taxes, besides the Federal government income tax, and a multitude of sufficiently annoying minor taxes, is out of the question!

The situation is not at all unlike the holding company question which is now being reviewed in hearings before the House Interstate Commerce Committee in Washington. In this case, the controversy is over double regulation of holding companies, at Sacramento it is over double taxation. At the present time there is enough duplicate taxation among our diverse and unnecessary pocket-pinchers. An income tax hits hard, just as a sales tax, and if we are to have the former duplicated in both State and Federal government, we can turn California back to the Indians, and find ourselves some secluded island in the Pacific where taxation was never heard of. This is merely another case of a good thing being carried too far.

No Track Team

ABOUT this time last year the whole campus was looking forward to a Saint Mary's track team to represent us this season; tryouts were made to determine the eligible men; we later participated in the Fresno Relays, and there was even talk about several individuals having been offered the position of track coach.

Apparently all this is now forgotten, for what reasons no one seems to know, and the oval on Agnon field continues to deteriorate and fall into disrepair due to lack of use and of attention. Thus the grand finale of last spring's ambitions!

By now it should be quite evident, even to the most optimistic, that there is no possibility of a track team here until the enrollment increases to at least twice its present size; the only solution to the track problem lies in increased numbers. Considering all the pertinent circumstances, we are doing exceptionally well now by supporting three major sports, a yearbook, and numerous other extra-curricular activities with the small resources at our disposal.

To assume another burden, especially without the means to do so, would be unwise. When the opportunity comes then Saint Mary's can have a track team, but the season should not be forced.

Brother Leo

"Nor is the present inclination towards irreligion caused by increase of knowledge. It springs from an enfeebling of the emotions and a paralysis of what may be called the spiritual imagination. We have been made callous by the business of the world and have been habituated to the use of machinery. That restless longing of the heart for that which the world cannot give, the discontent which the whirring wheels of machinery cannot appease, that reaching out after the invisible things of the spirit and for that which will not pass away, that hunger of hope out of which springs the wish-belief in a God who rules aloft by the law of the spirit and in the end will bring order and righteousness out of this seeming chaos—it is this that has grown dull, and we trudge on through the occupations of the day, passing like hirelings from one task to another, almost though never quite content with the flowing shadows of mutability, asking at the most for comfort and a little space of security, with only a flickering sense of the tragedy of life if this life be all, with no strong up-welling emotions, almost without feeling. And with this deadening of the emotions, whether as cause or effect it matters not, comes a relaxation of the imagination; we have lost the power of making real to ourselves those other-worldly things, whether they indeed be real or not, which the eye cannot see and the flesh does not suffer or enjoy."

So writes Paul Elmer More in his latest book, "The Sceptical Approach to Religion." I think here is a sound diagnosis. Some men do not believe because, not always through their own fault, their faculties of faith have become atrophied. Long neglecting to exercise their spiritual muscles, they lose spiritual initiative and strength.

Religion is the great adventure and demands in the believer an adventurous spirit. We cannot be adventurous without faith—and hope. Religious belief, as Dean Inge says, is "the resolution to stand or fall by the noblest hypothesis."

PRIEST GETS A MEDAL

Father Nieuwland, Professor of Chemistry at Notre Dame, will receive on April 22 the William H. Nicholas Medal, the highest honor that the American Chemical Society can bestow. The honor comes in recognition of his process for perfecting synthetic rubber.

"This is of vastly more importance than an undefeated national championship for a football team," comments the New World of Chicago. "In fact, it is no secret that the one college that is outstanding for its football prowess would prefer to have its enthusiastic friends pipe down a bit over the matter."

AND HE LOST HIS HEAD

We had thought that everything has been written about the very great saint who ate locusts and wild honey in the wilderness, baptized sinners in the Jordan and went to his death as a consequence of outspoken zeal. Like most of the saints, John the Baptist suffered much, faced numerous temptations, did immeasurable good.

Just recently, however, we saw a copy of that staid and dignified journal, The Baltimore Catholic Review, wherein an article was headed thus:

"SPAGHETTI SUPPER LOOMS AT ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST"

Here is a mystery before the importunity of which Salome might well pale her ineffectual fires. Just how does a supper "loom," especially so tenuous a thing as a spaghetti supper? And how can anything "loom at" anything else or anybody else, even the most eminent saints? Truly is there justification for the sub-head which assures all and sundry:

"Here is an Experience Which You Cannot Afford to Miss."

Alas, even in historic Baltimore, they indulge in journalistic curlicues.

Campus Comment

Dear Editor:

I think that something should be done about some of the elementary Math courses that students are required to take in the Econ and Finance curriculum.

A student who has not taken advanced algebra in high school is required to take Math B one semester which is to be followed in the next semester by the March 1 course.

Now it so happens that Math B and March 1 are identical and we Math students would like to know why we should waste one whole semester on a Math course we have already taken.

EXPERIENCE?

According to a dean at the University of Nebraska, the reasons why a freshman is usually flunked are: love, dumbness, and the intelligence of the faculty. Put them in your own order of importance.

WHAT'S ONE MAN'S OPTION?

Columbia University reporters, questioning people on the street, discovered that five out of six persons think college students are loafers. The sixth spoke Chinese.

ECHO OF THE PAST

Written in 1873 and recently resurrected from the files of the Daily Illini: "Since the admission of the girls to this University, not many boys go unshaved and uncombed, a still smaller number go collarless, and no one is found with his pants in his boots."

DOESN'T IT BURN YOU UP?

Not very long ago, Concordia College in Moorland, Minn., held a heated debate on the topic: "Resolved, that a house burns down and not up."

WEAKLY VOCABULARY

Purloined from a purloiner, who, purloined the following from the Temple University News: Athlete: A dignified bunch of muscles unable to shovel snow or sift ashes. Lawyer: He who protects your wealth in order to get it himself. Cannibal: A heathen who never works but lives on other people. Laplander: An awkward man in a street car.

PING PONG

Says the Golden Gater: "Saint Mary's may have its football, California its crew, Stanford its track, but the College of the Pacific has something really hard. Yes, sir, those Tigers are in training for an interclass ping-pong tournament. (Whoops, my dear!")

THEME SONGS

From the Fordham Ram: Astronomy: "Stars Fell on Alabama"; Biology: "Sweet Mystery of Life"; Public Speaking: "Pardon My Southern Accent"; Economics: "We're in the Money"; Psychology: "Lost in a Fog"; English: "I'se in Love, I Is"; Football: "I Get a Kick Out of You"; Exams: "The Last Round-Up".

WEEKLY WINDUP

By EDMUND DURKIN

A BLOW TO BALMISTS

Ladies who lure unsuspecting gentlemen into entangling alliances that result in breach of promise or alienation of affection suits, will find pickings lean if Assemblyman Ritchie's bill becomes law. Two states have outlawed this type of racketeering already and our state stands a good chance of becoming the third—at least it looks as if men are to be protected from ridiculous balm suits.

FORGOTTEN PROVERB

Germany's scrapping of the Versailles Treaty makes it look as if a war might occur over the provisions of the treaty that ended the last great war. The German people seem to have forgotten their old proverb, "A great war leaves the country with three armies—an army of cripples, an army of mourners, and an army of thieves."

JACK OF ALL TRADES

General Hugh S. Johnson, former dictator of N.R.A., in one of his recent verbal blasts at Father Coughlin, the clerical loudspeaker, warned him to stick to his priestly duties and to forget politics. This week Father Coughlin could have returned the fire, for the ex-N.R.A. chieftain has just tried his hand at Sunday School teaching, addressing the Methodist Church of Tulsa on the topic, "The Trial and Condemnation of Jesus Christ."

STRIKING PROTEST

Leaders in a movement for a national student strike, called for one hour Friday, April 12, to protest against war might wisely prepare for opposition, for many are opposed to such strikes because of the radical element that is usually involved, but they must admit that in case of war it is the youth that does the fighting.
